July ExCom/OpCom Monthly Meeting

Prepared by: Max Cherubin

Last July 12, 2022, our July ExCom/OpCom Monthly Meeting. The meeting began at precisely 7:15 pm, and there were 12 attendees. The chair had his remarks, and on behalf of the Foothill Section, we extend our condolences to the bereaved family of Charles Antoniak. He volunteered as a Senior Member serving in various roles locally and chairing the regional Professional and Continuing Education (PACE) committee.

No reports for Membership Development because Kim Mosley is not available. While on Social Media and Website, Osman Ceylan is out of the country.

Student Chapter

Abigale Rippe is the new external Chair of the CPP student chapter. Kayla CPP Vice-Chair is setting up a meeting and speaker on Afrofuturism, which is about reclaiming African and Indigenous people's scientific and engineering achievements, including that history.

Seth Gil, the chair of CBU, is still planning on what to do next for the next semester, like workshops, speakers, and competitions.

Ivan Magana, the CSUSB student representative, reported that they are on summer break; however, the officers are planning upcoming meetings.

Meanwhile, no one reported for DeVry University, but the chair, Max Cherubin, reported on their recent workshop, which was DevOps using AWS last June 24, 2022. It was successful, and there were more than 20 people attended the event.

Technical and Committees

For MTT/Ed/CAS, Scott Wedge reported ED/CAS events ongoing EDA conference this week. AP-S/URSI is also this week in Denver. EDS will celebrate the 75th anniversary of the transistor in 2022-23. Scott reported as well that Osman attended MTT chapter chairs.

For ComSoc, Dr. James Liao reported on behalf of Tamer Omar that they developed a survey to increase chapter involvement.
